MY SKIN JOURNEY

My name is Ru,

I'm a mum to three teenagers who are starting to find their own independence allowing me to question my position.

I have worked as an employee, homemaker and now i am following my passion as an entrepreneur. I have experienced so many amazing things and have overcome so many personal obstacles, I am enjoying my journey.

Unbeknown to me, my skincare journey started from a young age, my mother taught me to moisturise, drink plenty of water, use turmeric to brighten my skin and always use olive oil after every bath and shower. She was an advocate for having good skin, first skin then makeup.

I wanted to create a product that was kinder to the skin using all natural ingredients and going back to the simplicity of childhood.

I believe in not only applying good skincare products but also skin health, This isn't just drinking water but eating well.

Sleeping on a clean pillow, not touching your face all the time, using clean makeup brushes. SPF is so important!

Using a tool face roller can stimulate blood flow, decreases puffiness, distributes skincare products- a good workout for the face.

Finding a good facialist who understands your skin and what it needs to maintain your skin is always a good idea, nothing is ever a quick fix, good skincare is a journey.
